JACKSON'S

EVA TANGUAY IN "THE FOLLIES OF 1909"

Jackson's Theatre will have a large and brilliant audience on Monday evening next when the famous Ziegfeld Musical Revue "Follies of 1909" will be presented there with exactly the same production and cast as played in New York at Ziegfeld's Jardin de Paris. This includes Miss Eva Tanguay, the highest salaried and most popular of all American comedienne. This lively and spectacular entertainment during its twenty weeks engagement at the Jardin de Paris, entertained over five hundred thousand theatregoers, and broke all records for receipts. "Follies of 1909" while purporting to review some of the political and theatrical events of the present year is largely a high class vaudeville show with a number of exceptionally clever acts. There is not enough plot to the piece to be mentioned; the scenes are stretched from one end of the world to the other. "Follies of 1909" was written by Harry B. Smith, with music by Maurice Levy and staged under the direction of Julian Mitchell. This trio of celebrities also were connected with the other Ziegfeld sensation, namely, "Follies of 1900," and "The Soul Kiss." While the seat sale has been very large, there are yet a number of good seats left.

ROBIN HOOD

"Robin Hood" without the quaint comedy antics of "The Sheriff of Nottingham" would be quite a different opera bit when Hal Mostyn sings the role with the appearance of "Robin Hood" in this city at Jackson's on

ANTOINETTE LEBRUN,
"Maid Marian"—"Robin Hood."

Tuesday evening next, local opera goers will have an opportunity to see one of the greatest comedians of modern times. Mr. Mostyn sang this role with the "Bostonians" production of the opera for many years. No better cast ever sang "Robin Hood" than will be seen in this famous opera on its appearance here. Seats are now on sale.

PAPKE vs. KETCHELL
Ever since that twenty round battle between Billy Papke and Stanley Ketchell was pulled off at San Francisco there has been a dispute as to which man really won it. Papke, his manager and his friends all insisted at the time that the referee robbed the Kewanee boy when he gave the decision to Stanley Ketchell. Some who saw the fight said it should have been called a draw. The motion picture of the contest which will be shown at Jackson's on next Wednesday matinee and night, will serve to give local fans an opportunity to judge for themselves.

"THE THIEF."
The most talked-of play of last season, "The Thief" will be played at Jackson's, on next Thursday evening for a single performance. "The Thief" is a drama of incident, suspense and excitement. The story is not concluded until the last minute which makes it doubly strong in comparison with those plays which are wound up with a perfunctory last act. It gripped New York so tightly that it had a run of ten months in the Lyceum Theatre. Seat sale Monday morning.

THREE TWINS.
Mr. Jos. M. Gaites will offer at Jackson's, on next Friday and Saturday day evening and Saturday matinee, the sensational musical comedy "Three Twins" which had a run of 5 months at the Whitney Opera House, Chicago, and 10 months at the Herald Square Theatre, New York. The seat sale starts Tuesday morning.

POLI'S

Next week's show at Poli's is a good one. And when we say a good one we mean just what we say. It is a fine one, a great show. There is a lot of fine material in it and it is going to please every man, woman and child who attends, and there is going to be a big attendance. Why are we so sure. Well it is this way. When Mr. Poli promises a great big show you can always bet that he means just what he says, and he personally assures the local manager that next week's show is away above the average.

The bill is headed by that well known quartette of fun makers, the 4 Hastings, than whom there is no equal. Late of the "Pool House," in which they have starred for three years, they were induced, by an offer of a large salary, to abandon their tour and to come back to the vaudeville stage once more. They have done so, and Mr. Poli on the alert to get these old favorites, secured them.

And then too he has secured two of the very funniest singers to be found, Harold & Wood, who give us a little singing skit called "When Tenor Meets Bass."

Mr. Harold had a very unique break in to vaudeville. He was trying some music one day not long ago in Gus Edwards' office, when he was heard by Mr. Edwards, who happened to come in. He saw him and engaged him on the spot, and we have him.

He is called the Caruso of the vaudeville stage.

Here is the "Bill of Fare":
Carole Circus, ponies, dogs, pigeons, in an act that will surely please the little folks and the old ones too.

Cotter & Boulden, a singing and dancing act called "Whips and Bells."

A scream.

Potts Bros. & Co., a comedy sketch entitled "Double Trouble." And here we have the creme-de-la-creme of acts. Try and pick out the brothers.

Decoy & Sales, "Pavement Patter" is the title of this act. They sing some and talk some. All nice comedy. More laughs.

And then we have the dear old 4 Hastings. They have again entered vaudeville after starring in "The Pool House." Next week they will give a one act version of this self same "Pool House" and what can we expect but laughs, and then more laughs.

Harold & Woods, in unsurpassed singing act, "When Tenor Meets Bass."

Great act.

Casting Dunbars, one of the best on the circuit. All those who like this sort of work will not be disappointed.

Some special motion pictures will also have a place on next week's bill.

A SURE WAY OUT

QUICK RELIEF

It is a Positive Fact That in Not One Out of a Thousand of Supposed Kidney Cases Does the Trouble Really Lie with the Kidneys.

Practically all the so-called Kidney trouble is in reality Bladder Trouble. Although sometimes intensely painful, and always annoying, it may be easily and quickly cured with GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL CAPSULES.

There are other troubles arising in organs connected with the Bladder which are also quickly relieved by the use of GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL CAPSULES. Full information is given in the printed matter enclosed in each box. The Bladder is the reservoir for discharges from the Kidneys. Under normal conditions nature disposes of the contents of this reservoir (the Bladder) promptly and without pain. Once inflammation sets in, however, the contents may be retained for an unusual length of time, thus producing much pain and discomfort, or may be expelled with abnormal frequency and be the cause of much inconvenience and trouble. All of this may be relieved and finally cured by the use of GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL CAPSULES.

GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL is put up in two forms, in CAPSULES and BOTTLES. Capsules 25c. and 50c. per box. Bottles, 15c. and 35c. At all druggists. Be sure that you obtain the Gold Medal Tilly brand, otherwise you will get an imitation. Literature free.
